

Economic benefits

About 17 million dollars expected to be generated in tax revenue for Chatham and Auburn local schools and Sangamon County over the life of the project. Local schools will receive more than 60% of the tax revenue.

~200 jobs during construction

Supporting local businesses including restaurants, convenience stores, construction equipment, building materials and lodging